Comprehension (2):

My best friend, Jason, is angry with me! He doesn't talk to me. He only watches TV now. I must make him feel better. I am making him pancakes.

First, I gather the dry and wet ingredients. I put them in different bowls. Then, I mix the dry and wet ingredients together. Next, I heat a large frying pan. It's hot now. I pour all the batter into the pan. I am making one giant, delicious pancake for Jason. Now, the pancake's top is bubbling. I flip the pancake. I wait, wait and wait. Now, the pancake's bottom is golden brown.

I put the pancake on a plate. I use golden syrup to write, "I'm sorry!" The pancake looks very special. Everything is ready!

Jason comes into the kitchen! I serve him the giant pancake. He smiles, eats and says "I forgive you". I believe good food fixes everything.
